

This week is inspired by the classic, "Lord of the Rings" series.

An all-time classic TimberNook camp for older children that enjoy taking play to a whole new level. This week is inspired by the classic, "Lord of the Rings" series. This middle Earth themed week will have children doing everything from building a fortress & hobbit homes to traversing over mud, land, and water on different warrior missions. It will be a week full of adventure, games, and surprises!
